Important for Mothers Day Tea- This is the google link for the Mother's Day Tea on Friday May 10 <https://forms.gle/djYu3bqPVj75hU9XA> Please fill this out by May 6. We do prepare a video of pictures of moms, special ladies, and their littles; please email Sarah.Lofsness@stjohnslib.com with 2-4 pictures of your child with their "Special Lady (ies).

THIS WEEK- This week we learned about the letter W and the number 10 The children learned that rain, snow, and hail come from the clouds. We went over appropriate clothing in all the different seasons. I read a book called "Snowy Day" and we talked about winter clothing and reviewed what order to put it on. We also talked about their favorite season and what they like to do in that season. For art we made suncatcher raindrops to hang in our room over our table.

NEXT WEEK- We'll be learning about the letter U and the number 10. We will be learning about the sun, what it's made of, where the sun goes at night, and how the sun helps us and our environment. We will do some activities for the children to start recognizing a group of letters make words and words are separated by spaces. We will also talk about shadows and see how they change throughout the day. We will also learn about the clouds and the different types of clouds. We will talk about the different parts of the day (day, afternoon, and night) and talk about our favorite.
